

Pentagon Papers whistleblower Daniel Ellsberg shortly before Assange's arrest – "The truth is that EVERY attack now made on WikiLeaks and Julian Assange was made against me and the release of the Pentagon Papers at the time."

Noam Chomsky April 11 on DemocracyNow! – "WikiLeaks was producing things that people ought to know about those in power. People in power don't like that so therefore we have to silence him. OK?"

Whistleblower Ed Snowden tweeted on April 11, 2019 – "the United Nations formally ruled his [Assange's] detention to be arbitrary, a violation of human rights ..."

ACLU's Ben Wizner on April 11, 2019, in The Hill - "Any prosecution by the United States of Mr. Assange for WikiLeaks' publishing operations would be unprecedented and unconstitutional..."

Rolling Stone's Matt Taibbi tweeted on April 12, 2019 – "This piece by @gggreenwald about the Assange case lays out in tremendous detail why this is such a dangerous prosecution - a big step en route to a long-standing effort to define national security reporting as conspiracy."

Ecuadorian former Consul in London Fidel Narvaez tweeted on August 13, 2018 – "We are talking about the right to free information, to free expression, of the duty to unmask power, those who govern and the powerful. That is what is at stake. That is the significance of Julian"

Julian's doctor Sean Love, MD tweeted on April 13, 2019 – "Never did I witness Assange having poor hygiene or discourteous behavior toward embassy staff. His suffering was readily apparent, yet he was always pleasant, professional; admirable ... under extreme and punitive circumstances."

The Intercept's Glenn Greenwald and Micah Lee on April 11, 2019 – "So much of what has been reported today about this indictment has been false. Two facts in particular have been utterly distorted by the DOJ and then misreported by numerous media organizations ... "

Human Rights Watch on April 11, 2019 - "Many of the actions listed in the indictment, such as holding encrypted chats, concealing a source's identity, or using secure drop boxes, are part and parcel of journalism in the digital age" from <https://www.hrw.org/news/2019/04/11/us-assanges-possible-extradition-threatens-journalismrom>
