Files reveal the US knowingly imprisoned more than 150 innocent men for years without charge.

Among the prisoners were an 89 year old Afghan villager with dementia and a 14 year old boy who had been kidnapped.

Some of the innocent were taken purely because they wore a 1980s model of Casio watch, which was used as a bomb timer by terrorists.

The US relied heavily on dubious information obtained from a small number of detainees under TORTURE.

Intelligence agencies from China, Uzbekistan, Libya and other regimes with well documented torture practices were invited to interrogate inmates.

The Minton Report detailed how Dutch multinational company Trafigura dumped toxic waste in the Ivory Coast affecting 108,000 people - possibly the most culpable pollution disaster since Bhopal.

In 2006 Trafigura commissioned an internal report about it’s dumping of 540,000 litres of toxic waste in the Ivory Coast.

108,000 people were affected according to the UN.

COVERUP
In 2009, the report was suppressed with a secret gag order*

The Guardian and the BBC obeyed.

EXPOSED
WikiLeaks published the leaked report.

The Minton Report listed potential health effects:
- Burns to the skin
- Eyes and lungs
- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Loss of consciousness
- Death

UPROAR
Trafigura even sought to apply the gag order to parliamentary reporting when an MP asked a question in the House of Commons, about Trafigura’s toxic dumping and the role of its lawyers.

WikiLeaks wrote

The parliamentary questions were published all over the internet.

Trafigura was forced to back down before being challenged in court.

2 children severely injured
Their father dies in a van attempting to save one of the journalists.

We saw a wounded man lying in the square, my father stopped to help him.

The Pentagon blocked Reuters from accessing the footage under FOI laws.

The Washington Post had a copy of the video for at least a year, prior to its release by WikiLeaks.

A major turning point was when I pulled those kids out of the van. I stopped firing my weapon, I stopped beating people needlessly. It was at that point that I really realised what we were doing was wrong.

The Public Library of US Diplomacy is a growing collection of 3,326,538 diplomatic cables from 274 consulates and embassies from 1966 to 2010.

PLUSD began with 250,000 US diplomatic cables. Cablegate was the largest set of confidential documents ever to be released into the public domain. PLUSD is the world's largest searchable collection of United States confidential, or formerly confidential, diplomatic communications.

Publication of Cablegate was a key factor in igniting the Arab Spring. Cablegate triggered a crisis in US diplomatic relations across the world.

One of countless Cablegate revelations...

Then Secretary of State Hillary Clinton issued a Classified Directive to spy on allies and the United Nations.
